Three Upcoming Events in Long Beach

LONG BEACH, CA – The Long Beach Community Foundation is presenting its second annual, complimentary series focused on estate planning through three Wills & Trusts presentations at various Long Beach locations. These presentations are led by trusted and experienced, local estate planning attorneys and are designed to educate participants on how they can protect and provide for loved ones or leave a legacy to their favorite charity.

Attendees will learn about wills, trusts, estate taxes, probate expenses, guardianship of minor children, selection of personal representatives, and designating charitable beneficiaries.

“These educational events are a great service to the community, no matter the size of an estate or personal circumstance. Estate planning can be overwhelming and confusing, which often causes individuals to put it off,” said LBCF President and CEO Marcelle Epley. “With these informative events we hope to demystify the process and encourage opportunities for legacy planning and charitable giving as well.”

Interested community members are encouraged to attend one of the following The Wills & Trusts presentations:

- Tuesday, October 29 – 9:00 a.m. to 11:00 a.m. at Mobil: the mobility store located at 2153 N. Bellflower Blvd., Long Beach, CA 90815.
Presented by local estate planning attorneys Philip Cox and Jennifer Sawday.
- Tuesday, November 5 – 9:30 a.m. to 11:00 a.m. at El Dorado Park West Senior Center located at 2800 Studebaker Road, Long Beach, CA 90815.

- Friday, November 8 – 6:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. at Los Altos YMCA located at 1720 N. Bellflower Blvd., Long Beach, CA 90815.
