

Donor Advised Fund Grant Guidelines

With a donor advised fund (DAF), you can support any 501(c)(3) public charity in the US, including governmental, educational, and religious institutions. Rest assured that the Long Beach Community Foundation (LBCF) will exercise due diligence to make sure grants from the fund are given to organizations that have met the 501(c)(3) IRS requirements.

In some cases, LBCF may need to contact you and/or the suggested grant recipient for additional information before approving the grant. Following these guidelines will help expedite LBCF's approval process.

Grant Suggestions, Recommendations and Requests

Grants from a DAF must be made to charitable organizations. When making a grant, you may see the terms grant suggestion, recommendation, and/or request. This is because LBCF technically owns the assets in the fund, and any grant suggestions are subject to review and approval by LBCF. However, LBCF makes every effort to approve all grant suggestions that are made in accordance with IRS regulations.

Grant Suggestion Form

The LBCF grant suggestion form will ask you to agree to the following Terms of Agreement: To ensure fund activity follows IRS rules, I agree that every penny of this grant will be used for a charitable purpose, and neither I nor anyone I know will receive anything more than a coffee mug or other incidental benefit in return.

Memberships

You may use a DAF to cover the cost of a membership if the charity confirms that the full cost is 100% tax deductible. You may also use a DAF to cover the cost of a membership if your grant suggestion states that you waive the more than incidental benefits related to the membership.

Here are examples of incidental membership benefits that you can receive in exchange for a grant from a DAF:

- Free admission to all exhibits
- Discounted or free parking
- Discounts at the gift shop
- Preferred access to special ticketed events where you pay for tickets separately
- Invitations to members-only exhibits
- Low-cost items, such as a newsletter, calendar, key chain or coffee mug

Athletic Funds

You may use a DAF to support a college or university athletic program if your grant suggestion states that you waive all benefits, including priority seating at athletic events, ticket rights, or points.

Events

You may use a DAF to make grants to charities in support of their events, but here are a few things to keep in mind:

Tickets, Tables and Sponsorships

The full cost to attend events (both the tax-deductible and non-tax-deductible portions) must be paid from your personal bank account. You may pay any remaining sponsorship costs from a DAF, as long as you do not receive more than an incidental benefit in return. Logo or name recognition in event materials is not considered more than an incidental benefit. When submitting a grant request for a sponsorship, please note in your grant suggestion that you will cover the full cost of the tickets or table separately.

Here is an example of what you can pay from a DAF for an event: A $5,000 event sponsorship includes a table for 10 and your name or logo in event materials. If the lowest ticket price to attend the event is $100, you will pay $1,000 for the table personally from your bank account ($$100 \times 10$ seats at the table) and you can use the DAF to cover the remaining $4,000.

Keep in mind the amount that can be paid from a DAF is not always the tax-deductible amount published by the charity. LBCF staff can help you calculate what portion of the event sponsorship can come from the DAF based on the benefits received. If you choose not to accept any benefits associated with a sponsorship, the entire amount may be paid through the fund.

Raffles and Auctions

You may use a DAF to support fund-a-need calls for donations at charitable events, but you may not use a DAF to purchase raffle tickets or auction items.

Scholarships and Tuition

You may use a DAF to support a scholarship program administered by a 501(c)(3) public charity or educational institution, but you may not earmark dollars to assist a specific individual.

Mission Trips, Races, and Other Donations in Honor of Individuals

You may make a contribution to a 501(c)(3) public charity or religious institution in honor of an individual as long as the charity exercises complete discretion and control over the donation.

LBCF understands that many donations do not provide a direct benefit to an individual but are in recognition of an individual's fundraising efforts. Therefore, when submitting grants in honor of individuals, please explicitly state that the donations are "in honor of [individual's name]." For example, In honor of John Smith's Mission Trip or In honor of Jane Smith's 5k Race Team.

Pledges and Commitments

You may use a DAF to fulfill commitments to 501(c)(3) public charities. However, Treasury and the IRS prohibit using the term "pledge" on grant checks or related correspondence. Instead, please reference "donation" or "gift" in your grant suggestion.
